(b) whether NHAI has any proposal to set up a Committee to speed up dispute resolution;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the time by which the above proposal is likely to be submitted?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE
MINISTRY OF ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS

(SHRI PON. RADHAKRISHNAN)

(a) The state-wise details of NH projects under implementation is enclosed as Annexure-I.

(b) to (d) NHAI has developed a fast track dispute resolution mechanism through one time amicable settlement involving a three stage dispute resolution mechanism. Steps include due-diligence of disputes by a 3-CGM Committee followed by review and recommendations by an Independent Settlement Advisory Committee (ISAC) consisting of a Retired High Court Judge and two other Members having sufficient relevant experience and final decision making by the NHAI Board/Executive Committee based on the recommendations of ISAC.

Further, a Society for Affordable Resolution of Disputes (SAROD) has been created by NHAI along with NHBF for affordable resolution of disputes in a time bound manner.
